Additional information

Description:

This Carri-Craft 57 may be the answer for those looking to live on the water without the high expense. This Carri-Craft 57 was built allowing the owner to furnish the vessel to their own tastes. The 5.7 liter Mercruisers are inoperable at this time and this is reflected in the price. This could be an opportunity for a Handyman or those not concerned with an operable boat, rather seeking a live-aboard flat.
