Additional information

Description:

This 1988 Mako 261 Special Edition Center Console is custom made to a length of 29 feet with a tower for the serious fisherman. Both Mercury Optimax 225hp engines are almost new with less than 50hrs on them. This Mako 261 will cruise in the mid 30's with maximum speed in the mid 50's! The boat is lift kept, and the hull doesn't have a scratch on it. The helm station has a brand new full enclosure that has never been used. There is also a white dodger high enough to walk under that covers the forward deck for shade or sleeping. This meticulous owner has kept this Mako 261 in excellent overall `condition`, and she is loaded with the following options and upgrades:

Stainless Steel Props

Dual Hydraulic Steering Rams
Less than 50 Hours on Engines
Tons of storage in Bow seats
Floor storage on both sides
Rod Storage under gunnels both sides
Console has large storage with portable head
Transom Sides have lift out large coolers and storage under them
Rod Storage on Tower
Schaefer outriggers
All Bow and Console and Leaning Post Cushions New Brand New Custom Complete Helm Enclosure (Never Used)
White Dodger that covers the forward deck (Like New)
Console and Leaning Post Covers
Simpson Lawrence Windlass
